

- ◆ The Founders' understanding of freedom of religion presupposed a belief in God.
- ◆ The Bible has something to say about separation of church and state, and the answer may surprise you.
- ◆ The crucial role American preachers played in fanning the flame of liberty in the Revolutionary War.
- ◆ U.S. Supreme Court cases have recognized God as the source of religious freedom.
- ◆ Judges may defend traditional moral values in their judicial opinions.
- ◆ Churches may speak out about moral and political issues of the day, including pending pieces of legislation.
- ◆ Giving legal assistance to a church or organization when you also sit on its board raises unique ethical considerations.

Learn more about these topics and other thought-provoking legal issues at the Foundation for Moral Law's Church, State, and the First Amendment CLE Seminar. Sign up today to equip yourself to properly advise clients, churches, and public officials about their religious liberty and the true meaning of the First Amendment.

"God grant that in America true religion and civil liberty may be inseparable, and the unjust attempts to destroy the one, may in the issue tend to the support and establishment of both."

Rev. John Witherspoon, Fast Day Sermon,
May 17, 1776

The Foundation for Moral Law is a non-profit legal organization located in Montgomery, Alabama, dedicated to defending religious liberty and the right to acknowledge God in two ways:

Litigation—The Foundation for Moral Law defends religious liberty through litigation and appellate briefs in state and federal courts around the nation.

Education—The Foundation conducts seminars to teach the importance and constitutionality of acknowledging God in law and government.

Originally founded in 2002 as a legal defense fund, the Foundation expanded in 2003 under the leadership of Judge Roy Moore and the addition of lawyers who, through years of study and practical experience, have developed expertise in First Amendment religious freedom law, as well as the legal, historical, moral, philosophical, and theological principles upon which it is based.

For more information contact

Foundation for Moral Law

ONE DEXTER AVE
MONTGOMERY, AL 36104
PHONE: 334.262.1245
FAX 334.262.1708
WWW.MORALLAW.ORG

EMAIL:
RICH.HOBSON@MORALLAW.ORG

CHURCH, STATE, AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT™

APRIL 2, 2009
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

A CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION
SEMINAR BY THE

Foundation for Moral Law

Approved by the Alabama State Bar for 7 hours of CLE credit, including 1 hour of ethics.

CHURCH, STATE,
AND THE
FIRST AMENDMENT

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...”

You have been told for years that the First Amendment demands “separation of church and state.” But what exactly does that entail? The removal of God from government? And the exclusion of anything religious from the public square? Not at all. The First Amendment was designed to protect religious freedom and the public acknowledgment of God.

Join the Foundation for Moral Law’s CLE, Church, State, and the First Amendment, to learn what the Constitution, America’s unique history, and even the United States Supreme Court have to say about

- First Amendment Jurisprudence
- The Rule of Law – Then and Now
- The Power of the Pulpit in American History
- IRS Restrictions on Churches & 501(c)(3) Organizations
- Modern Moral Issues in the Law

Speakers at this CLE Seminar include:

- Judge Roy Moore*
- Justice Tom Parker*
- Col. John Eidsmoe*
- Ben DuPré, Esq.*
- Greg Jones, Esq.*

7:45 a.m.	Registration begins
8:15 a.m.	Introduction and Prayer Dr. Rich Hobson, Executive Director, Foundation for Moral Law
8:30 a.m.	Politics in the Pulpit: The Historical Context for Religion &amp; the First Amendment Greg Jones, Staff Attorney, Alabama Supreme Court
9:30 a.m.	The Founders’ Understanding of Religion in the First Amendment Judge Roy Moore, former Chief Justice, Alabama Supreme Court
10:45 a.m.	Break
11:00 a.m.	The IRS v. the First Amendment Ben DuPré, Legal Counsel, Foundation for Moral Law
12:00 p.m.	Break for lunch
1:00 p.m.	Separation of Church &amp; State in Modern Establishment Clause Jurisprudence Col. John Eidsmoe, Legal Counsel, Foundation for Moral Law, Former Law Professor
2:15 p.m.	Break
2:30 p.m.	Religion &amp; Morality in Judicial Opinions Judge Roy Moore & Justice Tom Parker, Alabama Supreme Court
3:30 p.m.	“Vocation” &amp; Professional Responsibility Col. John Eidsmoe
4:30 p.m.	Question &amp; Answer Panel
5:00 p.m.	Adjourn

Register today for the Foundation for Moral Law’s CHURCH, STATE, AND THE
FIRST AMENDMENT
CLE Seminar
April 2, 2009
Montgomery, Alabama

Cost: $175 early-bird (register and pay by March 26, 2009)
$200 after March 26, 2009
Space is limited, so register today!
Call (334) 262-1245 for more information, visit www.morallaw.org, or mail the following form:

Please sign me up for Church, State, and the First Amendment CLE Seminar!

Name
Address
Phone
E-mail
Bar Number
Method of Payment
Check	MasterCard
Visa	American Express
Credit Card No.
Expires
Signature	